EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with J. Miller on 25 May 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

In claim 1, line 10, after "predetermined value", the following has been added, --wherein the processor stops the motor when the processor determines that the object detected by the detecting means has the predetermined positional relationship relative to the cutting tool and that the detected speed exceeds the predetermined value--.

Claims 3 has been cancelled.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the limitations reciting a power tool comprising means for detecting the location and the speed as claimed for a processor as claimed to stop a motor driving a cutting tool as claimed in combination with other limitations set forth in claim 1 are not anticipated or made obvious by the prior art. For example, Lockey discloses an automatic safety brake for a rotary blade which utilizes a capacitance proximity sensor to detect the proximity of approaching of a human body to activate the brake. Hughes discloses a system for stopping power saw blades in response to body capacitance coming within a predetermined critical distance. Gass '336 discloses a machine having a contact detection system capacitively coupled to a cutting tool to activate a reaction system to prevent any injury. However, Lockey, Hughes, and Gass, singly or in combination, do not disclose a power tool comprising means for detecting the location and the speed as claimed for a processor as claimed to stop a motor driving a cutting tool as claimed in combination with other limitations set forth in claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
